How to get to the University of Leicester

Train

Leicester lies on the London (St. Pancras)-Sheffield, the Birmingham-Nuneaton-Peterborough-Norwich and Stansted, and the Coventry-Nottingham-Lincoln lines. Approximate journey-times and frequencies of trains are: from London 75 minutes/4 times an hour; Sheffield 75 minutes/hourly and Birmingham 60 minutes/twice an hour. Leicester Station is on the south side of the City Centre. The University may be reached on foot in 15 minutes, by turning left outside the station, walking up London Road and then turn right along University Road. Alternatively, Arriva buses 47/48 and 80 connect the station with the University and there is also a taxi rank at the station.

Coach

Though not always as fast as trains, coaches provide direct and cheap links between Leicester (St Margarets Bus Station) and many other cities. Arriva bus 47/48 connects the bus station with the University.

Air

There are direct bus services to Leicester from the regional airports: Birmingham International and East Midlands (Nottingham, Leicester, Derby), and from London-Heathrow and London-Gatwick airports as well as direct trains from London-Stansted.

From the City Centre

From Market Street the University may be reached on foot in 20-25 minutes: walk down King Street and turn left along New Walk, a pleasant Georgian pedestrian way, passing the Museum and Art Gallery; until you reach University Road then turn right along University Road.

Bus

Local bus services to the University from the City Centre include: Arriva Routes 47-48 from St Margaret's Bus Station and Route 80 from Charles Street. See www.arrivabus.co.uk for details.

Bicycle

The University is on National Cycle Route 63. Please refer to website for further details <http://www.sustrans.org.uk>

Cycle racks are now available on University campus.
